Vacancy on Historic Preservation Commission

The City of Kewaunee is looking to fill a vacancy on the Kewaunee Historic Preservation Commission.

This is a 7-member commission of citizens, appointed by the Mayor and ratified by the City Council. The purpose of this commission is to find reasonable solutions to preservation and appreciation of Kewaunee's historic properties located within the historical district - done in accordance with the City ordinance(s).

The Commission meets as needed. Meetings are normally held in the early evening. Interested individuals must be a city resident.

If interested, please contact Mayor Sandi Christman at 920-388-4991 or by email at: schristman@cityofkewaunee.org by 3/31/18.

Thank you!
